

FÉDÉRATION
INTERNATIONALE
DE NATATION

Published on FINA WebShop (<https://shop.fina.org>)

PR 99- Mixed celebrations in Singapore ultimate Diving Grand Prix meet

FINA Communications Department

Six nations, China, DPR Korea, Japan, Mexico, Russia and Singapore, claimed at least one victory this weekend in Singapore (SGP), the last host of the FINA Diving Grand Prix 2018 [1], from November 23-25.

Russia however was the most decorated team with three gold medals and four bronzes, as Sergey Nazin topped the men's 3m accumulating 416.90 points. Teammates Vitaliaa Koroleva / Uliana Kliueva then claimed the women's 3m gold with 288.30 and Iliia Molachnov / Vitaliia Koroleva were the best in the mixed 3m (283.50).

The host nation and DPR Korea each won two golds: Jonathan Chan of Singapore earned the most points in the men's 10m platform (438.55), while Timothy Lee / Mark Lee pocketed the 3m synchro title.

The women's 10m synchro was won by DPR Korea's A Rim Kim / Jong Gyong Kim, while A Rim Kim was also the best in the mixed 10m synchro together with partner Kwon Hyok Ri (285.72).

The individual women's events were dominated by Huang Xiaohui (CHN, 351.7) and Rin Kaneto (JPN, 333.40) respectively.

Mexico took the top honour in the men's synchro 10m platform with Ivan Garcia / German Sanchez (378.1).

Australia, Ireland, New Zealand and Poland were the other countries to step on the podium this weekend in Singapore.

The Diving Grand Prix 2018 is now over and the 2019 edition will start on February 14, 2019, in Rostock (GER), calendar below.

